3.5 In each semester, the institute will be required to conduct at least two mid semester tests for theory block.

3.6 Each student, registered for a course, shall be awarded grade by the concerned faculty / faculties for the subject / paper. The grades awarded to a student shall depend upon his continuous evaluation through performance in various examinations, assignments, quizzes, laboratory work, class work, mid semester test and regularity. The grades to be used and their numerical equivalents are as under:

Credit Based Grading System

Grade	Grade Point & % marks range (Based on absolute marks system)	Description of performance
A+	10(91-100)	Outstanding
A	9 (81-90)	Excellent
B+	8(71-80)	Very Good
B	7(61-70)	Good
C+	6(51-60)	Average
C	5(41-50)	Satisfactory
C	5(50only)	Satisfactory (for M.Pharm)

C	5(46-50)	Satisfactory (for B.Arch)
D	4(40 only)	Marginal (for PG courses Except M.Pharma)
D	4(31-40)	Marginal (for UG&PG Diploma Course)
D	4.5(45 only)	Marginal (for B.Arch)
F	0	Fail
I	0	Incomplete
W	0	Withdrawal

PART- I

PATTERN OF EXAMINATION / EVALUATION SYSTEMS / GRADING SYSTEMS

2. Examinations

To train the student to put in sustained and disciplined work over the entire period of study, following pattern of examination is being implemented in the University. Some important components of the examination pattern are as given in succeeding sub paras :-

(a) Theory Course

The University will follow the semester systems and accordingly three examinations shall be held in each semester for theory courses. These shall have a total weightage of 75% the balance 25% shall be allocated to Assignments, Quizzes, Tutorial and Regularity in attendance etc. by the Course Co-coordinator / Teacher. Details of examinations and their weightage are as follows:-

(b) Theory Tests / Examinations

Three types of tests/examinations shall be held in each semester as specified in sub section (a) of section 1. Types of tests / examinations are as under:-

(a) Test - 1 or T-1

(ii) Test - 2 or T-2

(iii) Test - 3 or T-3

(c) Weightage of marks, duration & syllabus for theory test / examination

Allotment of weightage of marks i.e. 75% of total as specified in sub-section (a) of section 1 & Syllabus, duration, marks for each Tests / Examination will be as under :

Allotment of marks:

Tests / Exams	:	T-1	T-2
T-3
Percentage of marks	:	15	25
35
Duration in Hours	:	1	1½
Syllabi Coverage	:

The syllabus for each test is course contents covered up to the last day of teaching before the examination.

(d) Allotment of remaining weightage of marks i.e. 25% of total as specified in sub section (a) of section 1.

Remaining weightage of marks i.e. 25% including 5% of attendance will be awarded by respective course coordinator in each theory course through the individual events i.e., Assignments, Tutorials, Quizzes, Regularity & Punctuality in class attendance on the basis of entire semester performance of the individual student.

a. Practical Courses

The evaluation of Practical / Laboratory / Sessional / Workshop work will be based on the following:-

f. System of Evaluation of semester's performance

The methods for computation of Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) & Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) and the credit based grading systems are as under :-

1. The Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) shall be calculated on the basis of grades obtained in all the courses, except audit courses, registered for the semester as under:-

$$SGPA = \frac{\sum_{i=1}^n C_i p_i}{\sum_{i=1}^n C_i}$$

Where C_i is the number of credits offered in the subject of a semester for which SGPA is to be calculated, p_i is the corresponding grade point earned in the i th subject, where $I = 1, 2, \dots, n$, are the number of subjects in that semester.

m

$$CGPA = \frac{\sum_{j=1}^m SG_j NC_j}{\sum_{j=1}^m NC_j}$$

Here NC_j is the number of total credits offered in the j th semester, SG_j is SGPA earned in the j th semester, where $j = 1, 2, \dots, m$, are the number of semesters in that course.

3.8 The grade at the end of each even semester examination for students of A – B group (off semester for students of B-A group) shall also show CGPA till end of that semester. The final examination grade sheet at the end of final semester examination of the course shall also indicate CGPA, equivalent percentage marks and the division awarded, according to the rule as given in Para 5.0 of this ordinance.

3.9 A candidate appearing in seventh semester after eighth semester (B – A group) will not be issued any Grade Sheet or Provisional Certificate after eighth semester until he has passed all the semesters.

(4) Condonation of Deficiency

4.1 Deficiency up to five marks can be condoned to the best of the advantage of the student for passing the examinations. The deficiency can be condoned in not more than two subjects (theory and practical of the same subject shall be considered as two separate subjects, for the purpose of awarding grace marks).

4.2 One grace mark will be given to the candidate who is failing/missing distinction/missing first division by one mark, on behalf of the Vice Chancellor in the B.E/B.Tech. examination. This benefit will not, however, be available to a candidate getting advantage under clause 4.1

(5) Award of Division

5.1 Division shall be awarded only after the eighth (Seventh semester for candidates of B – A group) and final semester examination based on integrated performance of the candidate for all the four years as per following details:

CGPA Score	Divisions
$7.5 \leq \text{CGPA}$	First Division with Honours
$6.5 \leq \text{CGPA} < 7.5$	First Division
$5.0 \leq \text{CGPA} < 6.5$	II Division

5.2 The conversion from grade to an equivalent percentage in a given academic program shall be according to the following formula applicable.

$$\text{Percentage marks scored} = \text{CGPA obtained} \times 100$$

10

(6) Class Tests & Submission of Marks:

- Normally two class tests shall be conducted for a subject as prescribed. The average of two tests shall be taken for computing marks obtained out of maximum marks prescribed for a class test.
- If a candidate appears for only one test & remains absent for the other test, his test marks shall be calculated on the basis of rule above considering the marks of the test in which he remains absent as zero.
- In case a candidate remains absent for both the tests, zero marks shall be communicated to the Board & he shall not be shown absent in the Mark sheet.
- The aggregate of test marks in each subject shall be converted into total marks for the Sessional head as per the teaching & examination scheme of the prescribed course.

Note: No request made by any candidate for holding any retest for reasons of his being absent due to any reason shall be entertained.

(7) Standard of Passing

To pass an examination a candidate must obtain minimum of passing marks separately in each theory paper, practical, oral and term work and any other head of passing as mentioned in Teaching and Examination Scheme of the course. While deciding minimum marks required for passing, fraction of a mark shall be omitted. The theory, practical, oral and term work shall be separate heads of passing.

(8) Rules of ATKT for Admission to Next Higher Semester / Year

A candidate passing minimum 2/3rd of total number of subjects prescribed for an examination shall be allowed to keep term for next higher semester/year.

A candidate with ATKTKT shall be eligible for admission to the next higher semester / year as shown in table given below.

- Subject head without passing requirement shall not be considered as a subject for this purpose.

(7) Award of Class

(A) There shall be four grades for award of class at an examination.

- First Class with Distinction (I DST)

A candidate shall be declared to have passed the examination in First class with Distinction, if he obtains 75% or more of the total marks.

- First Class (I)

A candidate shall be declared to have passed the examination in First Class, if he obtains 65% or more but less than 75% of the total marks.

- Second Class (II)

A candidate shall be declared to have passed the examination in Second class, if he obtains 45% or more but less than 65% of the total marks. The above grades shall be awarded subject to the condition that the candidate should not have availed exemptions in any subject of the examination as per below (i) and (ii).

- i) Award of class vis-à-vis claiming exemptions: A candidate claiming exemption/s in the subject/s on the basis of passing fully the prescribed or its equivalent examination/s of any recognized Board / University will not be entitled for award of class and will be declared "Pass".

However, a candidate declared to have failed in an examination of the Board, and granted exemption/s in certain subject/s on the basis of having passed them at previous examination and the marks secured therein, having been carried forward and shown with (#) in the certificate of marks, will be entitled for award of class at par with other successful candidates. However this is not applicable to the candidates undergoing Pharmacy course and Architecture course.

- ii) Exemptions for subjects passed in examinations of other Board/ University : A candidate who has passed fully the prescribed or its equivalent examination of a recognized Board / University in the subject/s recommended by the Equivalence Committee from time to time, shall, at his option, be entitled to claim exemption in such subject/s, provided always that the percentage of marks obtained by the candidate at the original examination is not lower than that of the minimum percentage for passing prescribed by the Board in the relevant subject/s of the course. Candidate shall not be eligible for claiming exemptions later, on the strength of having passed the subjects after the date of his admission. Candidate so exempted shall not be entitled to award of class. Exemption so admissible will lapse if not claimed at the first attempt at the examination of the Board.

For claiming exemption the candidate shall apply to Board or its regional office in the prescribed form. Such application shall be submitted through the Principal of Head of Institute before last date prescribed by the Board along with supporting documents and necessary fees if applicable. Forms received after due date shall not be considered. The Board/ regional office will inform the names of the candidates granted exemption and the subjects in which exemption are granted, to the institutes. (However this is not applicable to the candidates undergoing Pharmacy course and Architecture course).

Pass Class (Pass)

A candidate shall be declared to have passed the examination in Pass class, if he obtains marks less than 45% of the total marks but greater than the minimum percentage for passing, or he has availed exemptions as per Automatic exemptions:

A candidate whose overall result is "Fail / ATKT/FT", shall earn automatic exemption at the subsequent examination, in the subjects or passing heads in which he has passed.

A candidate shall be declared to have passed the examination leading to award of Diploma in first class with distinction if he secures 75% or more marks at the final year.

(8) Gracing

(a) Grace marks for Subject Passing :

A candidate shall be given 1 or 2 as grace marks as the case may be, for maximum marks below 75, or maximum 1,2 or 3 as grace marks as the case may be, for maximum marks 75 or above, to remove the deficiency in securing minimum passing marks in case the subject consists of theory or theory plus test examination. Benefit of gracing shall be given on aggregate marks of theory subject required for passing.

Benefit of gracing shall not be given twice in a subject.

A candidate who fails to pass an examination by not more than 10 marks in aggregate in not more than two heads, theory and / or practical including oral covering not more than two subjects, such deficiency in marks, would be condoned provided the candidate has secured at least 50% marks.

A candidate whose failure is thus condoned would be eligible for award of class on par with other successful candidates. The total number of marks secured by such candidate would however remain unaltered and "CON" (meaning Condonation) would be shown against his result in the certificate of marks.

However, if any candidate, does not wish to avail the benefit of Condonation, he shall have to obtain written permission from concerned regional office of the board, applying, prior to examination only, Any such request after the commencement of examination shall not be considered.

b) Grace Marks for Awarding Class

If a candidate falls short of maximum $\frac{1}{2}\%$ of the aggregate marks assigned to examination to obtain 75% marks (i.e. First Class with Distinction) or 60% marks (i.e. First Class) or 45% marks (i.e. Second Class), such deficiency shall be made up by adding maximum $\frac{1}{2}\%$ of the aggregate marks assigned to the examinations to the total marks obtained by the candidate in an examination. While adding maximum $\frac{1}{2}\%$ of the aggregate marks fraction of a mark shall be rounded to the next full number and added in the total.

(9) Carrying Forward Marks of Ex-Candidates for Exemptions :

In case of ex-candidates the marks obtained in different heads of passing in the previous examination of the same course in which he has claimed exemption, shall be carried forward for deciding his total marks. Such candidates shall be eligible for award of class or par with other successful candidates. Marks obtained in class tests will also be similarly carried over to the subsequent examination.

(10) Result of a candidate Appearing Simultaneously for two Examinations

The result of final examinations of a candidate who is required to appear for both the final and lower year examinations and fails or fails to appear for the lower year examinations but passes the final year examination shall be declared only after he passes the last but lower year examination.

The marks secured by the candidate shall be declared on Institute copy of result sheet with WFLY result in result column. The Principal should inform the marks of final year to the candidate who is eligible to apply for verification and/or to fill up examination form for improvement of marks wherever applicable. However, if such a candidate has failed in the final year examination he shall be so informed.

The A.T.K.T. / supplementary examination shall be as decided by Board of Management of the University.
